

Infant Exemplar

P-ILE-03 focuses on developmentally appropriate teacher and/or child created materials that are displayed at the child's eye level. The following pictures represent an infant learning environment. Realistic pictures of children's family members, pets, and other familiar people and places and arts or crafts created by teachers or children are displayed at children's eye level.

Pictures of the whole class, poster, and children's artwork